

Morehead Honors College
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

INTRODUCTION TO MARKETS AND ENTERPRISES

SPRING 2022 APPLICATION

This one-hour course is offered in conjunction with the Corsair Society, a Morehead Honors College-sponsored organization that helps prepare dedicated UGA undergraduates for careers in business. The course is intended for highly motivated second-year students, whether in the Morehead Honors College or not, who may be considering a business career. Students will learn about the macroeconomic climate, how markets and businesses function, and the realities of careers in financial services, general management, and consulting. Speakers will include leading business professionals involved in a variety of companies and industries to include the private equity, investment banking, asset management, and consulting sectors, as well as enterprises across the industrial complex.

Both Honors and non-Honors students with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.40 may apply for the course using this application. Applications must be submitted in PDF format by 11:59am to uga.marketsandenterprises@gmail.com on Monday, November 15th. Please send any questions to uga.marketsandenterprises@gmail.com.

Course Overview

The course will begin with an introduction of Porter's five forces, which will be used as a lens to view the different industries and case studies presented throughout the semester. Following that, the course will focus on Mergers and Acquisitions and the institutions involved in those financial transactions. Subsequently the course will compare private and public institutions that are affected by the financial institutions previously discussed. The course will then highlight management consultant's roles advising and solving problems for companies. The course will conclude with a course on leadership and business ethics and corporate social responsibility. The flow of the course will emphasize how important each of the different institutions' work is to one another, as well as explain how they all work together.

Course Requirements

- Each student must attend and actively participate in each class session.
- Each student must complete all assigned reading and tasks.
- Each student must meet with TA to discuss career development
- Each student must dress appropriately for each class session.

Attendance Policy and Grading

Due to the relatively few number of class sessions in the course, regular attendance is required to attain a satisfactory grade. Difficulties in meeting this expectation will be addressed by the TAs and/or Dr. Williams.

This course is graded Satisfactory (S)/ Unsatisfactory (U). Students who complete all assignments, abide by the attendance policy, and actively participate in the course will earn a satisfactory grade. Students who fail to meet one or more of the course requirements may receive an unsatisfactory grade.

Academic Honesty

All academic work must meet the standards contained in "A Culture of Honesty." All students are responsible to inform themselves about those standards before performing any academic work.

Students with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations in order to participate in course activities or meet course requirements should contact the instructor or designate during regular office hours or by appointment.
