MATH 1113

Most sections of Math 1113 are reserved for STEM majors until August 1st when that restriction will be cleared and all other majors will be allowed to register for precalculus.

- The following sections of MATH 1113 will be restricted to transfer students:
 - CRNs: 14612, 15230, 15362, 15391, 29585, 48861, 49952, and 52269
- The following sections of MATH 1113 will be restricted to Intended Business majors who need the course in order to apply to Terry in the Fall:
 - CRNs: 15362, 15230, 36868, 49952, 52269, 15391, 29585, and 48861
- Math 2260i Calculus II, Intensive Section CRN 49940
 - This "intensive" section is designed to help students who usually are unsuccessful in Calculus II find a pathway to success.
- MATH 2500 is restricted to Engineering and Intended Engineering majors only. If you are not an Engineering major and want this course, you should take MATH 2270 (Calculus III for Science and Mathematics; 4 credits) instead.
- Email Lucy Barrera (lucy.barrera@uga.edu) for access to any of the above restricted sections.

CSCI 1301 LECTURE AND 1301L LAB COMBINATIONS:

Athena requires that students take a matching lecture and lab for CSCI 1301. Any lab cannot match any lecture. Students should write down the matching CRNs and register for them together by entering the CRNs.
